ORAL JUDGEMENT

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. Challenge has been made by the petitioner in this special civil application to the order annexure 'A' dated 22nd June, 1987 of the Assistant Provident Fund

Commissioner, Gujarat State, Ahmedabad which has been passed under section 14-B of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.

3. Earlier when this petition had been filed, that order was not appealable but now the Tribunal has been constituted and as such the petitioner has now the remedy of appeal.

4. This special civil application is disposed of in terms that the petitioner is free to file an appeal against the impugned order before the Tribunal and in case this appeal is filed within a period of two months then the same may not be dismissed on the ground of limitation but it may be decided on merits. So far as the interim relief is concerned, it was a conditional order and that condition has not been fulfilled. So there is no question of continuing any interim relief. The special civil application and Rule stand disposed of accordingly with no order as to costs.
